

3rd Global Conference of Biological psychiatry Mumbai.

23 -26 August, 2018, Grand Hyatt, Mumbai, India

REAP Symposium, GCBP-3, Mumbai

Chairperson: Prof Ajit Avasthi

Speakers: Sandeep Grover, Chee Kok Yoon, Tin Oo, Takahiro A. Kato

1. REAP-AP4 Survey: What does data from India Suggest?

Speaker: Sandeep Grover (India), Ajit Avasthi, Adarsh Tripathi, Amitava Dan, Arshad Hussain, Naotaka Shinfuku

This presentation will focus on prescription patterns of 479 patients diagnosed with schizophrenia was collected from 5 centres in India as part of the REAP-AP4 survey and highlight the similarities and difference between India and other participating countries.

2. Polypharmacy and the trends of combined medication for the treatment of schizophrenia in Malaysia: Data from nationwide cohort

Speaker: Chee Kok Yoon (Malaysia)

This presentation will focus on the trends of combined medication for the treatment of schizophrenia in Malaysia. Additionally the presentation will focus on factors associated with polypharmacy in Malaysia.

3. Pharmacological Treatment of schizophrenia in Myanmar-Characteristics and Sociocultural background

Speaker: Tin Oo (Myanmar)

This talk will focus on the characteristics of prescription pattern for persons with schizophrenia in Myanmar collected as part of REAP-AP4 study. The speaker will focus on the ways and means to improve prescription of psychotropic drugs in Myanmar.

4. REAP case-vignette survey to clarify psychiatrists' decision-making process of therapeutic choice

Speaker: Takahiro A. Kato (Japan), Naotaka Shinfuku, Norman Sartorius, Shigenobu Kanba

Background:

This presentation will focus on case vignette survey to clarify the background of psychiatrists in the process of decision-making for diagnosis and therapeutic choices using some clinical cases.